

Unitil and Mirant Resolve Power Contract Issues

November 12, 2003

Hampton, NH - November 12, 2003: Unitil Corporation (AMEX: UTL) (www.unitil.com) today announced that its New Hampshire based utility subsidiaries, Unitil Energy Systems, Inc. (UES) and Unitil Power Corp. (UPC), have entered into a settlement with Mirant Americas Energy Marketing, L.P. (Mirant Americas), a subsidiary of Mirant (MIRKQ), with respect to the Portfolio Sale and Assignment and Transition and Default Service Supply Agreement among UES, UPC and Mirant Americas, in the Mirant bankruptcy case.

Under the terms of the settlement, Mirant Americas has agreed to assume and continue to fulfill its power purchase and sale obligations under the Agreement, to cure all pre-petition obligations, and to settle certain other disputes. Unitil has agreed to accelerate the payment of amounts it has held back from Mirant Americas.

"This agreement resolves a major source of uncertainty for our customers while insuring that they continue to receive the economic benefits of the deal, and allows both parties to continue doing business together under a contract beneficial to both sides," said Robert G. Schoenberger, Unitil's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

The Settlement is subject to approval by the U.S Bankruptcy Court in Mirant's ongoing bankruptcy proceeding.
